

Almost there

I'm almost there
With every rude comment and judgemental stare
No matter the intent
Always lost and scared
Never sure what's happening
And you act like you never cared
So I've stopped looking
For hope and for love
For those who won't say things and stare
Because they won't budge
And I know life isn't fair
