

IN HER SHOES

HANNAH

I have always struggled with horrible anxiety and a couple of years ago depression. Art has helped quiet my thoughts and makes me worry less. I always sketch in class or at home when I start to overthink and get myself worked up.

My mom is my biggest inspiration and loves ballet. I decided to sketch her this to show how strong she is and to make her something I know she would love.

