

YOURS

MIA

(she/her)

I have long had a deep appreciation for flowers and the music of Conan Gray, both of which provided comfort and support during a particularly challenging period in my life.

This painting reflects how music and nature have supported me through challenging periods in my life. It also reminds me that there is a community of individuals facing similar experiences, and that such difficulties are not permanent.

