

THE DUALITY OF CARTER

AUGUSTINE

(he/him)

CARTER

(he/him)

It all started after my good friend Carter Goodness became humorously known as Carter Badness to those closest to him. This spiraled into an entire documentary idea, and as high school boys with a lot of time on our hands, we decided to make it a reality.

This film is a fictional take of a character who struggles with Split Personality Disorder. Please note that this is not meant to be a realistic depiction.
